

Birth of Love

Lyrics by THOMAS BROWNLEE

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Moderato

9 Come, let me sing ye a cheer - y song, gleams A song of the birth of love!
Love, like a ra - di - ant sun - beam, Which sets all our hearts of a glow;

16 List, while I tell of the rar - est gift, Sent from the Gods a -
Love gives to hope an en - chant - ing dream, Life then with joys o'er

23 Love is the gem from the soul - of God where on - ly to Love is car - rols forth a bright mer - ry lay And sings ly to 30 Love youth doth live, fine, Love That is the fair one - est bright gift long to gol - den - ceive day The

And

37 sweet - est, gift to di - give. "Love was born 'neath a ros - y

whis - pers, "Love to di - vine."

44 bow - er, Vel - vet - y pet - als were shed; Love is the Gods' im -

51 mor - tal dow - er, which o'er the earth is spread; Love came

58 down on a sun - lit cloud, To soft - en all mor - tal care:

65 rit. accel. Why should the hu - man heart be sad, When Love is ev - 'ry where?
