

Her Yankee Boy

Words by ALEX THORNTON

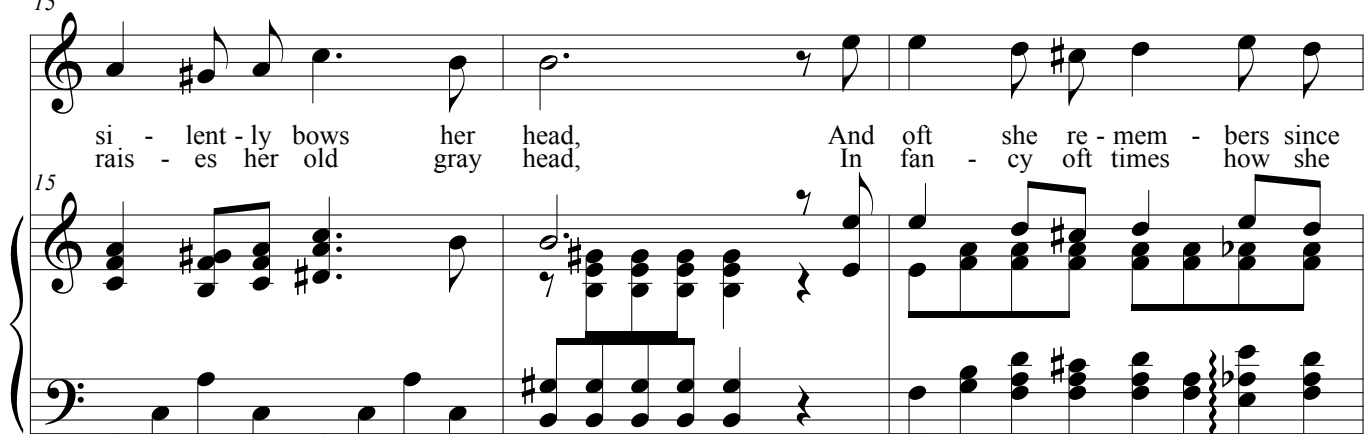

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

5
Watch - ing and wait - ing each day for her boy, fight - ing some-where in France, _____ A
Some-where in France this dear boy gave his life, fight - ing for you and me, _____ A lone - ly old moth - er's heart filled with joy, as she read of the Yanks ad - he - ro he fell in the midst of strife, and he died that we all be 12

9

vance; _____ She tho't of the old day when he sailed a - way, and she free; _____ His lone - ly old moth - er the suf - fring pain, now -

15
si - lent - ly bows her head, And oft she re - mem - bers since rais - es her old gray head, In fan - cy oft times how she

18
he hears has a - gone, gain, Those soft spo - ken words as she said:
18 he hears a - gone, gain, Those soft spo - ken words as as he said.

21 CHORUS
If God in his wis - dom thinks it fit, and I should fall on the field, Re -

21

26
mem - ber, Moth - er, I did my bit, A Yan - kee can nev - er yield.

26

